By letter 4-15-71, to Representative Bob Casey (Democrat - Texas), [redacted] objected to interview conducted by FBI Agents on 4-15-71, in [redacted] New Jersey. [redacted] apparently witnessed part of the interview and implied harassment on the part of the Agents claiming the individual interviewed "was scared as hell." [redacted] then continued to criticize FBI operations particularly its investigation of "people with differing political views." He claimed the Director was becoming too powerful politically and termed the FBI an instrument of repression charging the Bureau with "snooping, harassment, and whatever else the FBI is doing to innocent people is insane."

The facts are, according to our Newark Division, that in connection with our investigation into the burglary of the Media Resident Agency, 3-8-71, [redacted] a graduate student in the School of Religion, Princeton, New Jersey, and operator of [redacted] has been developed as a suspect. Simultaneous interviews were conducted with [redacted] at [redacted] and with his wife, [redacted] at their residence on 4-15-71. It was desirable to interview them separately and this was the only opportunity to do so simultaneously. [redacted] denied participating in or having knowledge of the Media Resident Agency burglary but stated he was in philosophical agreement with this type of action. He advised he did not possess information concerning the burglary but if he had, he would not furnish it to the FBI. His wife furnished substantially same information.

During the interview, several individuals entered [redacted] and [redacted] requested them to leave telling them he wished to continue the interview with FBI Agents who were talking to him. At no time during the interview did he indicate displeasure at being interviewed at [redacted] and he was specifically told at the outset investigation did not concern the operation of [redacted]

Today, we eight outraged Americans declare ourselves responsible for the disruption of two Selective Service Offices in New York. On August 2, 1969, four of us destroyed draft board files at 881 Gerard Avenue in the Bronx, and on August 15, 1969 the remaining four disrupted offices at 165-08 Jamaica Avenue, Jamaica, Queens.

We are outraged because of the Continuation of the Vietnam war despite the rhetoric of Washington officials who have pacified American consciences with promises of draft reform, deescalation and troop withdrawal.

As men and women of conscience we have singled out the Selective Service System to underscore the horror of a military system which drafts Americans to kill and die, we deplore the misguided value system accepted by this country which affirms the violence of war yet condemns the violence of poor and oppressed people. We regret the fact that human lives can be destroyed without any judgment being made by the American people, but that these same people are ready with moral judgments for those who destroy mere papers.

Today we distributed several Selective Service files to four of the leading United States Corporations involved in overseas investments. We have done this to highlight the interconnection of the big business corporation investments and the American military complex.

These corporations economically oppress poor peoples all over the world and then protect their investments by the presence of American or American trained military forces. Moreover, our national budget, topheavy with military spending and totally inadequate in funds for the human development of the emerging nations, clearly speaks of our twisted national priorities.

The files of 12 young men are now in the hands of the following people:

Mr. J. Peter Grace of Grace Lines
Mr. H.S. Geneen of International Telephone and Telegraph
Mr. J.K. Jamieson of Standard Oil of New Jersey
Mr. Charles Brinckerhoff of Anaconda Corporation

These executives were asked by the method of their disposing of these records to pass judgment on the lives of 12 draftees. We intend to give some of our corporate leadership an obvious choice between its own good throughout the world or the welfare of man. We wish to confront the American profit system with the fact of its expansion at the expense of the moral bankruptcy of the American people.

As Americans, then, we are outraged that our country, powerful as it is, chooses to exploit and suppress rather than solve human problems and liberate man from war, poverty, and racism. We call upon men of good will to denounce the Selective Service System, national racism, the violence of war and oppression, and the economic control of the U.S. which prevents the liberation of nations on the three continents of South America, Asia, and Africa.

ENCLOSURE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK: A group, who call themselves "The New York Eight", announced to the press today their responsibility for the destruction of draft board records August 1 at 881 Gerard Avenue, Bronx, and August 15 at 16508 Jamaica Avenue, Jamaica, Queens.

At both offices, which contain a total of eleven New York City draft boards, records of men who had registered for the draft had been taken from filing cabinets, torn into shreds and strewn about the floor. The offices contain a combined total of nearly 1,000,000 individual records which represent many Black and Puerto Rican New Yorkers. Most 1-A files were destroyed, some mutilated with black paint. Cross-reference files were also destroyed. One draft board supervisor stated: "We'll never get the records straight."

Police and FBI have been mystified by the identity of the group. No clues were left at the offices where police described the action as "professional and methodical." Similar statements were left at the offices by the "New York Eight", who denied being "vandals", but rather declared themselves "outraged Americans." On Gerard Avenue the statement was flanked by pictures of General Hershey and President Nixon, and on Jamaica Avenue the note was pinned to a large American flag on the wall of the office.

The group declared themselves outraged at the continuation of the Viet Nam War despite the promises of President Nixon and the hopes of Americans like themselves. Congressional movement to reform the draft system has recently come to a standstill in Washington. Most of the group, being Irish-American, likened the situation in this country to that of Northern Ireland, where civil rights are not respected and where violence is considered an alternative to respect for human rights. The New York Eight called upon all Americans to recognize and support the struggles of mankind throughout the world for human dignity and peace, and to denounce such oppressive agents as the Selective Service System, national racism, the violence of war and oppression, and especially the economic control of the United States that prevents the liberation of nations on three continents: South America, Asia, and Africa.

Draft Files were distributed to four of the leading "oppressive" United States corporations who have economic interests of over fifty per cent of their total assets invested in under-developed nations and who are supported by the U.S. military: Grace Lines, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Anaconda, and International Telephone and Telegraph. They called upon these corporations to compare their operations and values with the lives of these draftees, "forced to offer their lives to maintain U.S. economic exploitation throughout the world."

One member lamented the fact that human lives can be destroyed without any judgment being made by the American people, but that these same people are ready with moral judgments for those who destroy mere papers. The group denied any responsibility for, or relationship to, the disruption of the Manhattan Selective Service offices on July 1.

The group consisted of the following:

Re-Encirt-1 1/21/71 captioned "Demonstration Sponsored by National Coalition Against War, Racism and Repression, Washington, D.C., May 2-4, 1971."

Recipient offices have been authorized to send groups from these areas are expected to attend.

Since the captioned demonstrations are expected to

Resident Agency burglary may take part or that information may be developed from participants which may lead to the identity of the burglars.

Each office should specifically brief those informants authorized to attend the demonstrations on the possibility of developing information along the above described lines. The sources should be instructed to promptly furnish the San Francisco and WFO Offices with any information developed in this regard.

Any information developed from your sources
during debriefing sessions concerning the above matter should be immediately furnished the Bureau under the Medburg caption.

NOTE:

The National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) and the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) are sponsoring a series of demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, during the period 4/24-5/5/71. In all probability these demonstrations will generate interest among militants who will attend. It is conceivable that the perpetrators of the Media, Pennsylvania, burglary will participate in the demonstration and that our informants may develop information as to their identity.

The above instructions are being issued in order that sources authorized to cover these demonstrations will be appropriately alerted to these possibilities.

ORIGINAL EFFORTS DIRECTED TOWARD OBTAINING BY AGENTS SPECIMENS FROM AS MANY MACHINES AS POSSIBLE. PROJECT WAS REDIRECTED DUE TO THE NECESSITY OF AVOIDING LEGAL CONFRONTATIONS AT LOCATIONS INACCESSIBLE TO AGENTS. ACCORDINGLY PRIME SUSPECT LOCATIONS WERE SELECTED WITH REQUESTS MADE OF XEROX TO OBTAIN THESE SPECIMENS ON A PRIORITY BASIS. PROGRESS IN THIS REGARD WAS SUBSTANTIAL WITH SAMPLES FROM APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED MACHINES SUBMITTED. THIS APPROACH OFFERED GREATEST POTENTIAL FOR NON-DESTRUCTION OF CHARACTERISTICS ON SUSPECT COPIER. PROJECT CONTINUED UNTIL AFTERNOON. APRIL TWELVE INSTANT. BULF AIDE ADMITS SUPPLYING FBI INFORMATION

By BILL WINGELL

Margaret Turner, 22, former "Health Lieutenant" for the Philadelphia Black Panther Party, put her hands to her face and collapsed on her living room couch sobbing: "Oh my God, I'm not an informant."

It was Easter Sunday morning. Miss Turner had just been shown a copy (reproduced on this page) of a purportedly stolen FBI memorandum listing her as an informant.

The document was one of five new files received in the mail by this reporter during the weekend from the Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI. The memorandum, written on U.S. government stationery, listed "Margaret Turner" as its subject and noted in a personal data box at the bottom that "Informant now resides at (address deleted) (editor) W. Euclid, Phila." The address when checked was Margaret Turner's.

The memorandum cites three "contacts" with the subject in January, as reported by the memo's author, SA (special agent) Richard E. Logan.

Contained in the document was information on the Black United Liberation Front, an organization started by former Panther defense captain Reggie Schell. Miss Turner and other ex-Panthers after a split in the local party last fall.

The report stated: "Informant advised on 1-22-71 that the BULF is not going to buy a type setting machine. They are buying an electric typewriter and are supposed to have the use of a type setter the location of which she does not know yet. She said the members are fighting and drinking more than ever.

"On 1-26 she advised that Hawk left the BULF but Schell thinks he will be back. She also said the (sic) Wes Cook is no longer around the BULF and Schell is becoming (sic) very discouraged. She said Schell is "fed up" and seems to be blowing his stack. He is even talking about getting a job. It is the informant's opinion that the BULF is on the verge of breaking up. Other information referred to apparent bank robbery suspects.

This reporter visited Miss Turner in her North Philadelphia row house late Sunday morning. Dressed in a house coat and wearing her hair in curlers, she invited the visitor into the home and led him to a sparsely furnished second-floor living room. Two of her three children, ages two to five years, played in another room. The third was at her mother's, she related.

The reporter explained that he had received in the mail a document which seemed to indicate that Miss Turner had supplied information to the FBI. He said the file had been sent by the Citizens Commission to investigate the FBI, the group which claims to have raided the FBI's suburban Media office on March 8.

Miss Turner said she had already received a letter herself from the Citizens Commission. It was one which was being sent to persons the commission believed to have supplied information based on information found in the stolen files.

THE MEMO WINGELL RECEIVED (WE BLACKED SOME NAMES OUT - ED.)

The evidence was to be sent to the people you have been informing against," the letter said, adding that "later on, your name will be made public. We give you this time in order that you may make whatever plans you wish for your future."

Miss Turner said she had not seen the stolen document itself. The reporter showed her his copy. That's when she began to cry. Tears continued to stream down her cheeks during the interview. Insisting that she was not an informer and had never been paid by the FBI, Miss Turner conceded that she had given the information in the report to a girl she knew to be a paid informer.

"She asked some shit and I told her, I told her everything," the woman said.

Asked why she had given such information to a person she knew to be an informer, she said only that "it didn't seem important" that she not do so.

She said she knew the girl as "Carol" or by the nickname "Buffy" but did not know her last name. She refused to give the reporter the girl's address or telephone number.

Miss Turner said she had also been visited several months ago by two FBI agents and had answered only "yes" or "no" to a series of questions she characterized as "Do you know so-and-so?" She said the agents had asked her how much money she would want to become an informer and she had replied, "A million dollars." She said one agent responded that he thought "five thousand dollars would hold you over." She said she continued to reject the proposal. "I should have taken the five thousand," she said wryly.

On the day before the reporter's visit, Miss Turner said, a member of the BULF had come to her house and told her the group had received a copy of the stolen FBI document. He said he wanted to give her a chance to "clear yourself," she related. She said she told him, "I don't have anything to clear myself about."

The woman expressed concern for her children, saying she wanted to "get them out of the house" and over to her mother's. Asked if she feared for her safety, she sighed. "What difference does that make now?"

She went on to mutter something about her sister, noting, "I guess I don't have a sister now." What did she mean? the visitor asked. "My sister is Reggie Schell's girl," she said.

Miss Turner asked the reporter if he knew how to operate a Polaroid camera lying on a nearby kitchen table. She said the BULF would need a photograph of her to use in a leaflet they would probably issue denouncing her. "That's like suicide, isn't it?" she asked with a pained laugh, dropping the subject of the photograph.

Referring to her employment, which she described as "health education," Miss Turner said she also feared losing her job inasmuch as her supervisor is herself heavily involved in the liberation movement.

She said she had planned to take her children to the zoo for Easter, but now she didn't know what to do. "I feel like running, but there's no place to go," she cried.

The interview was at an end. "Reporters are like cops," Miss Turner muttered. "Thanks for a Happy Easter. Turn the latch as you go out, please?"

The reporter went down the stairs and out the door, locking it behind him.

Xerox Corp. Cooperates in FBI Search

The Xerox Corp. said yesterday it is "cooperating fully" with the FBI in the search for the Xerox machines used to copy FBI documents stolen in the March 8 raid on the FBI's Media, Pa. office.

Peter McCollough, president and chief executive officer of Xerox, disputed earlier reports that Xerox would not provide the FBI with samples of copy images produced by the type machines believed used by the thieves.

"Despite public reports to the contrary," McCollough said yesterday, "Xerox is cooperating fully with the FBI as we would with any government law enforcement agency now and in the future."

Gerard Mulligan, public relations director for a Xerox division, said earlier that Xerox "decided at the very highest level" not to provide laboratory samples of the copy images. He said lists of customers who lease the 660-series machines, the kind used to copy the documents, had been given to the FBI.

[REDACTED] XEROX COMPANY, STAMFORD, CONN.

I HAVE AGAIN CONFERRED WITH [REDACTED] WHO REAFFIRMED THAT HE HAS EVERY INTENTION OF SEEING THAT HIS COMPANY FULFILLS FBI

You were previously advised the "Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI" would be contacting Bureau sources and informants identified in stolen FBI files and attempt to make them discontinue their cooperation with the FBI.

Subsequently, seven individuals who had previously furnished information of value to the FBI received typewritten letters dated 3/31/71, from the "Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI." Each was accused of being an informer for the FBI and advised that within one week after receipt of the letter their name would be made public.

This activity by the "Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI" was referred to the Internal Security Division of the Department to determine if this constituted a violation of Federal law.

Robert C. Mardian, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, advised on 4/20/71, that Chapter 73 of Title 18, dealing with obstruction of justice was amended by Congress with the enactment of Section 1510. This section dealing with the obstruction of criminal investigations provides in part that:

"Whoever willfully endeavors by means of bribery, misrepresentation, intimidation, or force or threats thereof to obstruct, delay or prevent the communication of information relating to a violation of any criminal statute of the United States by any person to a criminal investigator.... Shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both."

Mardian further advised there are no reported decisions interpreting this statute. However, based on the legislative history of this provision which states in part that the "sole purpose of the act is to protect informants and witnesses against intimidation or injury by third parties with the purpose of preventing or discouraging the informants or witnesses from supplying or communicating information to the Federal investigator," it is the opinion of the Internal Security Division that the above-mentioned activity does constitute a violation of 18 U. S. C. 1510.

All offices should remain alert to development of situations wherein this statute could be applied for successful prosecution.

On 4/23/71 the Washington Bureau of the Los Angeles Times advised they had received through normal mail channels an envelope addressed to Los Angeles Times Reporter [redacted] containing one original and 15 Thermofax copies of stolen documents. These documents were voluntarily furnished to Washington Field Office Agents. DC

On the same date information was received from the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, to the effect that [redacted] of The Washington Post, had contacted the Deputy Attorney General and informed him he had received another packet of copies of stolen FBI serials. One was an original and [redacted] indicated he was afraid he was in receipt of stolen property and was, therefore, sending it to the Deputy Attorney General's Office. Subsequently, a messenger from The Washington Post appeared at the Justice Building gate and in accordance with the desires of the Deputy Attorney General Office a Bureau Agent accepted delivery of the letter to Deputy Attorney General Kleindienst to which was attached an original FBI serial. DC

The majority of these documents have not been previously made public by The Citizens Commission and the packet sent to the Washington Bureau of the Los Angeles Times contained a new Citizen Commission letter which was "enclosed as a guide for the copies of FBI documents." * A preliminary examination of the documents by the FBI Laboratory has reflected that they were copied on SCM (Smith Corona copier). The typewriting on the Citizens Commission letter enclosed in the packet was done by an IBM Selectric Script Style not previously used on the other documents. The documents have been forwarded to Latent Fingerprint Section for examination.

Reference is made to my letter of March 25, 1971, which enclosed pertinent data concerning documents which had been identified as having been stolen from our Resident Agency at Media, Pennsylvania, as of that date.

At a demonstration on April 16, 1971, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), [redacted] addressed the crowd and said he was a former paid FBI informant. He stated he had been recruited by an Agent in 1964 and worked on behalf of the FBI from 1964 to 1966. He said he submitted approximately ten reports during that period on antiwar groups and was paid $15 per report. [redacted] stated he discontinued activities for the FBI when he found himself agreeing with what was being said at antiwar demonstrations he attended. [redacted] held what he said was a Xerox copy of a memorandum of Special Agent Thomas F. Lewis dated August 1, 1969, captioned "Conference of War Resisters, International, Haverford College, Haverford, Pennsylvania, August 25-31, 1969; Internal Security - Miscellaneous." He read the memorandum to the crowd and said he was one of the two informants identified by name in the memorandum. He said he was not contacted by the FBI after 1966, despite the mention of his name in the 1969 memorandum.

FBI Document Calls College Aide a Source

By Betty Medsger
Washington Post Staff Writer

A secretary at Swarthmore College has been an FBI source for at least six years, according to a copy of an FBI document received by The Washington Post yesterday.

Marjorie Webb, secretary to the college registrar, was identified in earlier copies of documents sent out anonymously by the Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI as "an established source" whose identity should "be protected."

Four copies of FBI documents with Miss Webb's name on them were among 25 received yesterday. They were sent to The Washington Post by Martha Shirk, editor of The Phoenix, the Swarthmore College student newspaper.

Miss Shirk said she received the copies of FBI documents last week from the Citizens Commission, the group that has taken credit for the March 8 raid on an FBI office in Media, Pa.

The Swarthmore College secretary is one of several college employees cited as regular FBI informers in the more than 60 copies of documents that have been distributed by the Citizens Commission. Miss Webb's identity has been revealed in articles in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and the campus paper.

Swarthmore president Dr. Robert D. Cross said April 9 that faculty, students and staff members of the Philadelphia-area college risk dismissal if they divulge confidential information to the FBI or other government agencies.

Inquiry Under Way

A campus investigation into whether campus employees were acting wrongly in collaborating with the FBI is now under way at Swarthmore.

One of the four copies received yesterday containing Miss Webb's name as a source was of a November 1965 administration faculty memorandum.

"Received... confidentially from Miss Webb" was handwritten across that memorandum, the subject of which was how college personnel should respond to inquiries concerning applicants or nominees for governmental positions.

That college document, later passed on to the FBI, said, "Unfavorable information pertaining to an individual's character, morals, conduct or mental condition should not be made available unless required under subpoena."

Miss Webb's relationship with the FBI first came to light in a document received earlier that described an FBI investigation of the daughter of Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis.).

Documents received yesterday indicated that surveillance of Miss Reuss, now a senior at Swarthmore, was more elaborate than had earlier been revealed.

One document received yesterday says what grades Miss Reuss achieved in her courses. Other documents reveal that surveillance of Miss Reuss involved the CIA, the Milwaukee Police Department and the Philadelphia Police Department.

Former SDS Member

Miss Reuss formerly was a member of Students for a Democratic Society, but she said she is not involved in any organizations now. Her father has been critical of the investigation of his daughter, saying the FBI has no business compiling dossiers on millions of Americans who are accused of no wrongdoing.

In regard to investigations of applications for government jobs, an April 1967 document calls for caution on the part of the agent and urges him not to conduct such investigations on campuses unless it is necessary. Persons being interviewed for such background information, said the document, should be fully informed of the reasons for the interviews.

But there was a very different attitude toward on-campus FBI work last fall when, another document says, resident agents were asked to furnish information about the current number of university or college sources on the academic or administrative staff including security officers, the number of current student security informants or PSIs (potential student informants).

Names Listed

The names of agents (and the colleges for which each of them is responsible) is listed in that document.

Among the documents received yesterday were copies of the Swarthmore campus newspaper that had been filed by the FBI and copies of memorandums from the Swarthmore Police Department.

Two of the police documents were lists of car license numbers, names and addresses. One list was data about cars, cycles and scooters on the campus without college per-

Xerox repairmen in Boston are and have been collecting samples from all 660-model Xerox machines for the FBI. The samples are being matched with Xeroxed copies of stolen FBI documents in an attempt to pinpoint the machine on which someone is duplicating the files stolen from the Media, Pa., office of the FBI.

The Citizens' Commission to Investigate the FBI, an anti-war group which burglarized the Bureau's Media office on March 8, has been mailing copies of the FBI memorandums they stole to journalists, politicians and radical groups across the country. The FBI has found many of the disclosures embarrassing and all too revealing. The clandestine domestic spy apparatus that is described in some of the documents is certainly more pervasive and oppressive than J. Edgar's booklet "99 Facts About the FBI" would let on.

In an exclusive article last week, the Phoenix offered the first published description of the nature and focus of the FBI's Media investigation: The FBI has centered their effort on the militant non-violent Berriganesque wing of the Roman Catholic Left. A survey of all the major East Coast centers of Catholic militancy revealed that the entire movement was under intense pressure from federal agents working on the Media case.

The Phoenix also revealed last week that the FBI, with some co-operation from Xerox Corp., had determined that the copies of the stolen documents that were mailed out by the Citizens' Commission were duplicated on a 660-series Xerox copy machine.

Each Xerox machine has something like a "fingerprint," an imperfect image reproduction that leaves its own particular flaw marks on each copy reproduced by the machine. The flaw marks on the copy mirror chips and scratches on the light-sensitive selenium drum that is part of the Xerography mechanism. Laboratory comparison can match two flawed images as having come from the same machine.

We also revealed last week that we had confirmed reports of FBI agents visiting firms which lease 660-model Xerox units to obtain comparison samples.

What I didn't know then was the contents of the inter-office memo regarding co-operation with the FBI. I knew that a memorandum existed and when I talked with Gerald A. Mulligan, manager of public relations for Xerox's business products group headquarters in Rochester, N.Y., I inquired specifically about it. Mr. Mulligan said he could not discuss internal corporate memorandums with the press.

Mulligan also said that Xerox, upon request from the FBI, had provided the Bureau with a list of 660-series machine users "to assist in an official investigation."

Mulligan said Xerox had been asked by the FBI to assist further by providing laboratory samples of the different sorts of copy images produced by the different models within the 660-series (660, 660-1, 660-II), but had refused to co-operate. Xerox management, explained Mulligan, considered and then decided that "if we did this — got directly involved in the FBI investigation — we would be obliged to inform our customers."

Mr. Mulligan laid it out when I pressed him: "Xerox gave them the customer list, p-e-r-i-o-d!" But he still never got around to explaining that memo; which was interesting, because when I checked back with the Boston office the following morning, they had already been wired a warning not to speak to me about any memorandums.

The memo that all the metropolitan Boston area "tech reps" or repairmen received was from Mel Mahler, Boston Branch Manager, dated April 1, 1971. Subject: "Favor to FBI." There were two sheets, one was the memo itself, the second was a piece of clean paper with notations of where to fill in info on who made the copy and where the machine was, etc.

The memo read: "Please make four copies of the attached original and on every 660 service call prior to servicing machine.

"This is an effort to assist the FBI in identifying a machine used to copy stolen documents. Any additional planned service you can initiate on 660s would be of great assistance to the FBI since copies were made only two weeks ago.

"By means of this memo I am asking that this procedure also be followed for all 660 demo machines (machines lent without charge for an introduction period) and all 660 machines coming into the refurbishing centers."

This order was contramanded Wednesday; the day the Washington Post - L.A. Times Wire Service ran a nationally up-dated version of the Phoenix story. (Editors note: McLellan also wrote the Washington Post story.) Someone must have realized that to have a newstory being published across the country quoting a top official saying one thing and having the tech reps doing another and reading about company officials denying it, was to have the company caught in an awkward squeeze, at least.

Saturday morning, I finally got hold of the text to the memo. I placed a call to Xerox's Corporate headquarters in Stanford, Conn. Mr. Frederick Isley, manager of corporate public relations, was working overtime Saturday — preparing a press release to clear it all up. It seems that when Mr. Mulligan told me such and such had been decided by the highest level of management, he wasn't talking about THE HIGHEST LEVEL.

C. Peter McColough had a personal statement waiting for me. Mr. McColough is the President and Chief Executive officer of Xerox Corporation. The statement would be read to me. There would be no further comment. No questions would be allowed. Ahem! C. Peter McColough begins.

"Only within the past 24 hrs. has a matter come to my attention involving Xerox Corp. with an investigation being conducted by the FBI. Despite public statements to the contrary, Xerox is co-operating fully with the FBI as we would with any government law enforcement agency now and in the future."

C. Peter McColough continues: "It clearly would be inappropriate for us to make any further comment regarding the nature of our co-operation."

C. Peter McColough ends.

INSPECTOR [REDACTED]

Captioned case involves the burglary of the FBI Media, Pennsylvania, Resident Agency. In Newark, the case is presently assigned to SA [REDACTED] and supervised by Supervisor [REDACTED] of the C-3 (Accounting) Squad.

The following suggestions and/or instructions are being set forth to emphasize the importance of this case and to insure that your office devotes the necessary manpower and investigative attention to this matter. Certainly no case presently being handled in the Newark Office is worthy of more of your personal attention or is more important to the Bureau than this case.

The Bureau has instructed that you use whatever manpower necessary in this case, pointing out that the obvious opportunity to develop factual information as to the whereabouts of suspects during the pertinent period diminishes with passage of time. The Bureau also instructed that Newark's investigation concerning the stolen FBI material postmarked Princeton, New Jersey, be afforded priority attention. The Bureau specifically instructed that consideration be given to utilization of surveillances and other investigative techniques in this matter.

A review of the handling of this case from the date of the burglary (3/8-9/71) to 3/26/71, revealed the only recorded investigation by Newark consisted of two memoranda to agents requesting contact with informants and sources and the covering of a few specific leads from other offices. A case of such paramount importance to the Bureau, even though the crime occurred in an adjoining office's territory, should certainly have been handled with more initiative and aggressiveness by your office.

SUGGESTIONS

INVESTIGATIVE

The following suggestions have been discussed with you and your personnel assigned to this investigation and are being set forth here for emphasis and direction of this investigation:

1. The artist's composite sketch of the girl who was at the FBI Media Resident Agency prior to the burglary should be immediately furnished to every investigative employee in order that:
 - (a) Each employee may view the sketch to possibly recognize suspects resembling the sketch and
 - (b) Every informant and source (criminal, security and racial) may be immediately shown this sketch in an attempt to develop information concerning the identity of this individual.

The above is to be handled most expeditiously.

2. A careful review of the potential of every informant or source concerning this matter should be made and where appropriate specific assignments should be given to informants and sources in relation to this matter.
3. The highest priority should be given to developing complete background and activities of [redacted] and [redacted] and any other individuals associated with them in the operation of [redacted] New Jersey. These individuals are known to be in contact with persons from Philadelphia strongly suspected of being involved in this matter.
4. Immediately pursue all aspects of investigation at the Post Office in Princeton in an attempt to develop any conceivable information available regarding the time, whereabouts, and possible individuals involved in mailing of the material from Princeton.

5. Immediate investigation should be undertaken concerning each New Left activist in the Princeton area. Identities of those individuals could be determined from appropriate file reviews and should include not only those individuals subject to current investigation but should also give consideration to subjects of closed cases who are still in the area, as well as appropriate Security Index subjects.
6. In addition individuals from the Princeton area who have in the past organized or participated as leaders in anti-Vietnam - anti-draft activities should be immediately considered as potential suspects. Also include those individuals who have publicly refused induction to the military service and those individuals who have been involved in break-ins of Selective Service Offices.
7. During the course of file reviews careful attention should be given to any handwriting samples of suspects and where available such should be promptly submitted to the Laboratory for comparison purposes. During subsequent investigation concerning this matter the obtaining of handwriting samples is to be given diligent attention.
8. In view of the mobility of individuals involved in such matters you should not limit file reviews for potential suspects to individuals solely from the Princeton area, but should likewise consider individuals in the above categories from other areas of your territory.
9. In developing potential suspects and individuals who should be considered in relation to this investigation close attention should be given to organization files on groups such as The Resistance and other anti-war and/or New Left groups.
10. Priority attention must be given to the leads concerning locksmiths which are presently being covered.

11. Immediate contact must be made with Xerox Company distributors in an attempt to determine identities of places of business, churches, seminaries, schools, or other establishments which have in their possession the particular type Xerox machine used to reproduce the FBI documents mailed from Princeton.
12. In any case involving a group of conspirators, communications between members of the group can be considered as a weak link and specific investigation should be undertaken in this regard. Promptly consider contacting postal authorities in pertinent areas to determine identities of individuals who, shortly before or after the burglary, have filed requests for general delivery mail. Give consideration to obtaining any seemingly pertinent handwriting from such requests for submission to the FBI Laboratory for comparison purposes.
13. You may also consider contacts with newspapers who have in the past printed letters to the editor from various individuals concerning anti-draft, anti-war etc. matters. If such original letters are still maintained by the newspapers and can be discreetly obtained, consider submitting these to the FBI Laboratory for comparison purposes, noting that the type of individuals involved often write such letters to newspapers in their own name.
14. In view of the indication of possible involvement by present or former members of the clergy, consideration should be given to identifying summer/retreat houses maintained by churches and/or seminaries which may be vacant at this time of the year and may possibly be used by the individuals involved. If such are located, appropriate discreet investigation should be undertaken to identify persons possibly using these places, similar to the investigation presently being conducted at Avalon.
15. Note specifically Bureau instructions that surveillances and other investigative techniques be utilized in this case where appropriate. In this regard, even the provisions of Title III of the Crime Control Act of 1970 should be considered.
16. If not already done, other appropriate files such as 62-0; 100; 44; 25, etc. should be reviewed for possible handwriting samples to be submitted to the FBI Laboratory for comparison purposes.

ADMINISTRATIVE

As noted above this case is presently being handled on the Accounting Squad. In order to give appropriate and necessary emphasis to this investigation the following suggestions are made:

1. Consider assigning this case to the ASAC Squad for his personal supervision and he should devote whatever portion of his time (even 100%) necessary to insure that every facet of this matter receives aggressive, thorough and imaginative attention.
2. A special squad to work only this case should be made up of the best men available in your office and they should report directly to the ASAC for the duration of this investigation.
3. Since the individuals most likely involved in this matter have previously been involved in matters handled by the Selective Service and New Left Groups particular emphasis should be given to utilization of men from those squads with a knowledge and background concerning investigation relating to such individuals.
4. In view of Bureau instructions as reiterated above, this case should be given your personal attention on a continuing basis.

You should not expect the office of origin or the Bureau to set forth every lead which should be covered, but rather the Newark Office will be expected to exercise the utmost initiative and ingenuity in pursuing every aspect of this matter.

The above comments, suggestions and instructions are not intended to be all inclusive, but rather should be considered as guidelines and, as stated, it will be expected that your office will pursue this investigation with diligence and perseverance to insure that every ramification thereof is promptly and thoroughly handled. In view of developments and close proximity to scene of the crime, Newark has a definite responsibility regarding the potential breaking of this case. You must insure that adequate investigative and supervisory personnel are assigned pursuant to Bureau instructions.

Comments of SAC requested.

Reference is made to the last paragraph of page one of captioned writeup.

On 3/9/71 a teletype was received from Philadelphia re burglary of Media Resident Agency. The same date a dissemination memorandum was prepared with our usual circularization; namely, each resident agency and squad supervisors. In addition I personally had the Night Supervisor make a copy of Philadelphia teletype for each senior resident agent and send it out the night of 3/9/71 with a routing slip attached instructing "All resident agents and senior resident agents should read attached teletype. This teletype should then be destroyed by SRA." The matter was discussed in detail at the supervisors' conference on the morning of 3/11/71.

On 3/11/71 a teletype was sent to Director and Philadelphia to check out a sports car bearing Pennsylvania license which was seen in the vicinity of our Red Bank Resident Agency on 3/8/71. There was a further exchange of teletypes between Newark and Philadelphia on this vehicle and it was resolved as reflected in Newark teletype 3/15/71 to Director and Philadelphia as an individual visiting a patient at the Riverview Hospital, Red Bank, which is near our resident agency.

Philadelphia teletype sent 2:29 P. M., 3/12/71 contained a lead for each office to survey resident agencies in their division and determine whether a female had visited resident agency re equal job and equal pay opportunities for females. A xerox copy of this was sent to each resident agency to handle; thereafter destroy the teletype (because of security reasons) and advise case agent of any positive information. Results were negative.

Philadelphia teletype sent 2:13 P. M., 3/12/71, contained a lead to check out license numbers. This was handled same day and Newark teletype 5:55 P. M. to Director and Philadelphia furnished desired information.

In response to Philadelphia teletype 3/13/71, Newark by teletype 3/15/71 set forth results of contact with Management Locksmithing Institute, Little Falls, New Jersey. Procedure was later resolved and Newark is now checking names furnished by Philadelphia and other offices against list of subscribers to this service.

Newark Airtel 3/15/71, no copy to Bureau, furnished Philadelphia with 32 photographs taken by Newark Division during surveillance of meeting of the Hoover Vacuum Conspiracy (HVC) on 2/20/71. Same airtel also enclosed five photographs of individuals from Philadelphia recently indicted in Newark for attempted B & E of a local draft board, Bridgeton, New Jersey. These photographs were furnished to Philadelphia for consideration as as suspects in instant matter.

Butel 3/16/71 instructed that sources and informants, whose identities have been exposed, should be alerted for their own protection. Newark teletype to Director and Philadelphia 3/17/71 advised this had been handled.

Philadelphia teletype 1:56 P. M., 3/18/71 furnished information re breaking of lock at resident agency and instructed receiving offices review individual case files, contact sources and informants and poll agents in an attempt to ascertain identity of any likely suspect who could have inclination in conjunction with ability. A dissemination memorandum was prepared and distributed 3/18/71 with instructions that positive information should be furnished case agent or supervisor. This was negative. u

Philadelphia Airtel 3/18/71 enclosed copies of a composite sketch of an unsub female who walked into the Media resident agency on 2/24/71. Photographs were furnished to resident agencies, security and Selective Service squads. No record was made in the file as to this distribution.

Philadelphia teletype of 3/20/71 requested check of a telephone number and this was handled same date by teletype.

Bureau Airtel 3/23/71 carried instructions to review files concerning break-ins to determine if any news release or public statement could be located similar to that issued by the Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI in which the word "jeopardy" was used; that any positive results should be furnished immediately to Bureau and Philadelphia. The files regarding the Elizabeth and Union City Selective Service break-ins and the attempted break-in at Bridgeton, New Jersey, in which the subjects were apprehended by the local police were reviewed with negative results and a notation was placed on serial 39 that this was done and no positive results.

Newark teletype 3/24/71 to Director and Philadelphia stated in part, "Review of files, Newark Division, developed only reasonable

"suspect either as participant or as having possible knowledge before or after the fact in captioned matter would be [redacted] For this reason he is not being interviewed, UACB."

I personally read in the "New York Times" that stolen serials had been mailed to Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN postmarked Princeton, N. J. This was the first information we had as to this. I had the supervisor include in Newark teletype to Director and Philadelphia, 3/26/71, the following:

"Recent press coverage of instant matter in 'New York Times' indicated stolen serials mailed to Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN were postmarked Princeton, N. J. Contact with postal inspector, Trenton, N. J., reveals all out-of-town mail postmarked Princeton would cover any corner mail boxes and mail from main post office, Princeton. All mail for other than local Princeton delivery is sorted at Trenton sorting center. Total population served by Princeton Post Office would be approximately 30,000 which includes Princeton University.

"Philadelphia advise if serials sent to 'Washington Post,' 'New York Times' and 'Los Angeles Times' had postmark at Princeton and if so dates postmarked as well as postmark date on serials sent to Senator MC GOVERN in order that inquiry can be made of postal authorities at Princeton concerning knowledge of persons mailing serials."

Bureau teletype 9:29 P. M., 3/26/71, advised in part. "Senator MC GOVERN's package and the package mailed to [redacted] Washington Bureau of 'Los Angeles Times,' were postmarked from Princeton, N. J., on 3/19/71." Thereafter a special squad was set up and investigation was conducted at Princeton, Trenton and Camden, N. J., on Saturday and Sunday, 3/27 and 3/28/71 and intensified efforts are being made to identify the sender and, of course, the individuals responsible for the burglary at Media.

With regard to the investigative suggestion set forth by the Inspector, a photograph of the artist's conception has been furnished to each agent. The other suggestions set forth have also been and are continuing to receive attention.

In telephonic discussion with the laboratory this date a handwriting examiner advised that we need specimens of printing and not handwriting.

The case was initially assigned to Squad C-3 which handles accounting matters, Theft of Government Property and Crimes on Government Reservations. This was the reason for assigning the case to C-3 squad. Today I have transferred the case to the ASAC who will head the squad and have reassigned the case to a different agent. You can be sure that this matter will receive continuous, aggressive attention and that I will personally follow developments.

Meaningful comparisons cannot be made between handwriting and hand printing. Therefore, it was not possible to determine whether the writer of K4036 did or did not prepare the questioned hand printing on Q48 and Q49, previously submitted in the MEDBURG case.

The submitted evidence is returned herewith. Photographs were not made.

Dear [redacted]

Your letters to [redacted] are great! and I'm sure you two do each other alot of good. As a matter of fact, it does us all good to know you're up there being human.

Your comments about whether we shouldn't have tried harder to communicate with the matrons at the county jail are certainly in accord with my general "philosophy" (I'm not sure my hodge-podge thoughts deserve to be dignified by that title). Unfortunately, however, it will take someone with a far greater spiritual gift than I've got to reach them at this stage of their unhappy development. The police here leave open more possibilities. The hardest part (for me; anyway) is helping them see us as individuals. Not only do they tend to lump all prisoners here together (which is understandable, even though it's unacceptable), but they also consistently lump the four of us F.C.C. people. Very discouraging.

I don't think I ever thanked you for arranging that phone call from [redacted] to me at the jail. It was a very strong support at a very low time. And I have to admit that it was one good thing you-as-agent could do that you-as-person couldn't have. The matrons hold your organization in considerable awe.

I'm happy to hear you are interested in prison reform. Knowing my present situation (or should I say, location?), you are probably not surprised to hear that prison reform interests me somewhat less than prison abolition. But I'm not completely fanatical about the subject and will gladly hail any real reforms anyone cares to inaugurate.

Speaking of prisons, whoever was responsible for packing me off to Martic should know that's not the place to send young innocents. Or isn't that quite what they had in mind with me? I haven't any idea whom to thank for my transfer, but if I ever find out I intend to crochet her/him/them a scarf, offer up prayers for their souls on alternate Thursdays, and have a dozen long-stemmed roses delivered to their door.

I understand your reservations about the Media action. But the people have handled it very well so far, don't you think? They seem to have (thank God) a strong moral concern for the continued well-being of the undercover agents as people. I'm really sort of glad we didn't manage to get away with your office's records. It's a very very heavy responsibility to undertake.

The following summarizes current developments in the investigation involving the theft of FBI documents from the Media Resident Agency (RA), Philadelphia Division, during the night of 3/8/71.

NO NEW CONTACTS BY CITIZENS COMMISSION REPORTED: According to our Philadelphia Office, there have been no new contacts by the Citizens Commission of either the news media, sources or informants or other individuals since Friday, 4/2/71. Currently, seven sources or informants have been contacted by mail all postmarked Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Each have been warned by the Citizens Commission against continued cooperation with the FBI and each has been threatened with public disclosure of their names should this cooperation continue. Copies of all communications to these individuals have been received at the Laboratory and are currently being afforded examination.

In discussions with Departmental Attorney [redacted] he indicated the letters to informants would not in his opinion constitute a violation of the Extortion Statute. A possibility exists that they would be a violation of the Obstruction of Justice Statute. Further research is being conducted by the Internal Security Division.

SUSPECT [redacted] Intensive investigative consideration is being afforded [redacted] the [redacted] year-old [redacted] Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, since she has been identified as a visitor to the Media RA on 1/15/71 when she allegedly was making inquiry relative to the availability of a Bureau speaker. Background developed thus far shows [redacted] to have had a lengthy history of militant and anti-war activities. She was arrested in 1964 in San Francisco, California, at a civil rights demonstration receiving 30 days in jail, $100 fine and six months probation. While [redacted] California, she was active in the student

This committee was formed to support the radio station which was under investigation by the Senate Internal Subcommittee and handouts distributed by the student committee attacked the integrity of Congressional investigators and the Director of the FBI. When complete background is obtained on [redacted] she will be reinterviewed.

(U) COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) ACTIVITY: [It had previously been reported that CP functionaries in New York and Philadelphia had interest in obtaining copies of the stolen FBI documents. Activities of these individuals were closely followed over the weekend through informants and physical surveillance and there was no indication that CP members contacted Muhammad Kenyatta, Philadelphia Black Economic Development Conference leader, who had been targeted by the CP as a potential source.]

Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian just called to advise as follows:

He said the Attorney General is gravely concerned about the above-captioned case and wishes to be of every possible assistance to the Bureau in this matter. Therefore, he is going to convene an investigative grand jury in Philadelphia and through it initiate the most exhaustive investigation possible.

As the grand jury proceeds contingent upon the facts involved it will subpoena both individuals and press organizations where deemed necessary.

Mr. Mardian said the Attorney General believes that with complete cooperation all around some very beneficial results can be developed by pursuing this course of action. Mr. Mardian concluded by saying that if the Director has any ideas or suggestions in the matter, the Attorney General he knows would appreciate greatly receiving them.

RECOMMENDATION:

For the information of the Director.

Re Bureau airtel, 3/23/71 regarding phraseology
"jeopardy."

A review of Buffalo files reflects that the only instance known to Buffalo in which the phraseology "jeopardy"
was used is as follows:

Report of SA CHARLES A. DURHAM, dated 10/9/70, captioned "EAST COAST CONSPIRACY TO SAVE LIVES (ECCSL), IS - MISCELLANEOUS; DGP; KIDNAPING; SABOTAGE - CONSPIRACY,"

In response to the Director's inquiry, the following is a summary of dealings with Xerox Corporation in conjunction with our investigation into the burglary of the Media, Pennsylvania, Resident Agency (RA).

[redacted] Buffalo, New York, who is quoted at length in [redacted] column of 4/14/71, had not been in contact with nor was he known to our Buffalo Office until he contacted SAC, Buffalo, late 4/12/71, identifying himself as being with the Public Relations Department, Xerox Corporation. At that time he indicated Xerox had decided to rescind its original instructions to regional representatives allowing them to assist the FBI in the collection of Xerox copies from suspect machines. Shortly after this decision was reached [redacted] received a telephone call from [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts, who claimed to be a part time reporter for the "Washington Post" newspaper. [redacted] told [redacted] he had learned in connection with the break-in of our Media Resident Agency that numerous FBI stolen documents were reproduced on a Xerox Model 660 machine and furnished to Congressmen and newspaper sources. He told [redacted] that Xerox, according to his information, had furnished the FBI a list of Model 660 customers and that Xerox had been asked to obtain samples from these machines. [redacted] said he knew this to be true and wanted confirmation from Xerox.

[redacted] then told [redacted] a list of subscribers of Model 660 machines had been made available to the FBI; that Xerox had been asked by the FBI to furnish sample copies from certain Model 660 machines; but that Xerox had decided not to comply with this request. [redacted] then published an article concerning Xerox's participation in this matter in the "Phoenix," a weekly Boston newspaper, on April 13, 1971.

On 4/14/71 [redacted] unsolicitedly contacted SAC, Buffalo, and referred to [redacted] article. He said he had been contacted by one [redacted] on [redacted] staff 4/13/71, and was asked a number of questions similar to those propounded earlier by the Boston reporter. [redacted] maintained he did not go beyond the statement he originally gave to the press, but admitted acknowledging to [redacted] that in some instances it would be technically possible to identify documents reproduced on a given machine. [redacted] claimed he did not volunteer any technical data to [redacted] obviously put words in his mouth attributing them as coming from a Xerox spokesman for his [redacted] own benefit.

SAC, Buffalo, firmly pointed out to [] that in responding to [] leading questions, he had been mousetrapped and permitted [] to write an article which contains substantial details that can only hinder our investigation.

By way of background, after the surfacing of the Xerox copies of the stolen serials, immediate contact was made with Xerox Corporation, Rochester, New York, in order to determine the model Xerox copier utilized. When Xerox definitely determined the Model 660 copier was the one used to reproduce our serials, contact was established with three officials of the Xerox Corporation: namely []

With [] acting as spokesman for the group, these three, after consulting with other unknown Xerox officials, formulated the policy that Xerox service personnel on a regional basis would obtain copies from suspect Xerox copiers and turn them over to the FBI for analysis. Xerox personnel were being utilized in those instances where lessees were known to be uncooperative, such as colleges and universities, religious and social groups. According to SAC, Buffalo, top-level officials of Xerox, upon returning from a Florida vacation, reconsidered the original decision by Xerox and on 4/12/71, issued instructions that Xerox personnel should no longer participate in obtaining copies from suspect machines.

SAC, Philadelphia, advises that irrespective of these instructions, Xerox representatives in the Philadelphia area will continue to furnish specimens from suspect machines on a highly confidential and voluntary basis.

ACTION: This is submitted for information.

RE PH TEL DATED APRIL NINE, LAST

REQUESTING BALTIMORE TO CONTACT USA, DISTRICT OF DELAWARE, IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ORDER FROM USDC, DISTRICT OF DELAWARE, ORDERING [REDACTED] TO SUBMIT FOR MAJOR CASE PRINTS.

ON APRIL FOURTEEN LAST AUSA [REDACTED] DISTRICT OF DELAWARE, WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, ADVISED HE HAS RESEARCHED LAW, HAS DISCUSSED MATTER WITH USA, DEPARTMENTAL ATTORNEYS AND US DISTRICT JUDGE, DISTRICT OF DELAWARE. BASED ON HIS RESEARCH IT IS HIS OPINION THAT DISTRICT COURT IN DELAWARE HAS NO GREATER AUTHORITY TO REQUIRE [REDACTED] TO SUBMIT TO MAJOR CASE PRINTS FOR USE IN ANOTHER INVESTIGATION, THAN IT WOULD HAVE AUTHORITY TO REQUIRE THE SAME OF ANYONE ELSE.

HE FEELS IF DISTRICT COURT IN DELAWARE ORDERED [REDACTED] TO SUBMIT FOR MAJOR CASE PRINTS, ANY SUBSEQUENT PROSECUTION OF

[REDACTED] BASED ON THOSE PRINTS, WOULD BE JEOPARDIZED.

HE SUGGESTED THAT IF PROBABLE CAUSE EXISTS TO

SA LEWIS and SA [redacted] have advised in connection with the PSP report that former Trooper [redacted] regularly furnished SA LEWIS with such reports and it is assumed by SA LEWIS that the report referred to in the newspaper article was inadvertently left in the Media RA and not destroyed after it was used in the above mentioned case.

Urella Finds Too Much 'Big Brother' In Information Files on Citizens

By PAUL F. LEVY
Of The Bulletin Staff

State Police Commissioner Rocco P. Urella said today there is "too much of Big Brother" in the collection of information on citizens by government agencies.

"I am opposed to simply compiling names and information for the sake of having large amounts of names and information handy," Urella said.

Urella, who took office in January, also said he believes in "peaceful demonstrations as a legitimate means of gaining legitimate rights," and that the function of the state police is to protect the constitutional rights of "everyone involved."

State Police File Taken

He made the comments in an interview after being told that a state police intelligence file on black student groups at Lincoln University, Oxford, Chester County, was among those stolen from the Media office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on March 8.

The file was made available today to The Bulletin and other newspapers by a secret group calling itself the Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI, which claims credit for the burglary.

Nearly 50 such files, out of the 850 to 1,000 taken by the group have been made public so far.

Opposes Turning Over Data

Urella said his general policy will be against turning over to the FBI information collected by the state police, ~~as was done in the Lincoln University case.~~

~~He said there might be exceptions, but that in general the information would be "for~~ ~~official use only."~~

~~"Sometimes there is too much of Big Brother in this country," he added.~~

Urella said the use of troopers assigned to the community relations division, and contacts with all sides in a dispute often will be more successful than informants obtained by troopers assigned to the intelligence division.

Former Dean Reported

In the state police intelligence file taken from the FBI's Media office, a trooper discussed the "black power" situation with ~~Dr. Donald K. Check, former dean of student affairs at Lincoln~~

Dated Oct. 17, 1967, the report said that Dr. Check, who is now in California, "will be in contact with members of the Black Student Congress", and report to the state police any of their activities that might lead to violence.

"I would not just contact the dean," Urella said, "but also very openly, the student demonstrators and try and keep open a dialog with them that would avoid violence and keep things peaceful."

Puts Policy to Work

Urella, a former state policeman who was chief of county detectives in Delaware County before becoming commissioner, said he has put this policy to work already in the upcoming trials of the Harrisburg Six.

"Our people not only contacted the federal marshals, but also the peace groups that are coming into Harrisburg for this," Urella said.

"We have told them that we will not violate their constitutional rights to demonstrate, and we hope they will remain peaceful.

"If you do this, people won't get such a bad impression of the police."

The Harrisburg Six is the name given to the six persons, including the Rev. Philip Berigan, who were indicted by a federal grand jury in Harrisburg for an alleged plot to kidnap presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger and to blow up heating tunnels under government buildings in Washington.

Argentina Rescinds

Ban on Politicking

~~UNIVERSITY OXFORD PA.~~
~~Buenos Aires (UPI)—Ar-~~
gentina's military government yesterday repealed a five-year-old ban on political activity but the powerful General Confederation of Labor demanded that former dictator Juan Peron be allowed to return.

Only Peron can stabilize the country, the chiefs of the union said. They threatened strikes if Peron is not permitted to return from exile in Spain.

The loosening of restrictions on political activity is seen by some observers as paving the way for Peron, now 75 but vigorous.

Pesticides Reduce India's Crop Losses

Pesticides are used to protect crops on more than 135 million acres in India and have helped reduce losses in India's new storage facilities.

Hundreds of new cold-storage plants are helping farmers hold crops until they can be marketed.

By BILL KOVACH

Special to The New York Times

BOSTON, April 7—The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been recruiting informers, ranging from bill collectors to apartment house janitors, in an effort to develop constant surveillance in black communities and New Left organizations.

Under a program begun in 1968, agents were ordered to cultivate informers who could move into high levels of radical organizations, but later directives from Washington warned that some informers had been attacking policemen and urged "control" of such activities.

These and other flickering glimpses of the bureau's investigative techniques emerged from a bundle of 25 pages, making up nine separate documents, that were recently stolen from the bureau's office in Media, Pa., and made public.

The New York Times obtained these latest documents from Resist, a Cambridge-based organization that raises funds for other organizations resisting the Indochina war. Resist said it received them from anonymous sources earlier this week.

Report on Borrowed Car

The documents are part of 800 pages of material stolen from the Media office on March 8 by an organization calling itself the Citizens Commission to Investigate the F.B.I. The group says it hopes to expose "the nature and extent of surveillance and intimidation carried on by this office of the F.B.I."

Among the documents was a memorandum in which a lay brother at Villanova Monastery in Pennsylvania is said to have reported that a Villanova University priest had borrowed a monastery car "for the entire weekend prior to the bombing of the U. S. Capitol on March 1

The informer felt this was significant because the priest was known as a sympathizer with the Rev. Philip J. Berrigan and his brother, the Rev. Daniel F. Berrigan, who is awaiting trial on Federal conspiracy charges, the memorandum said.

Memorandums circulated to all bureau headquarters agents in the country in February, 1968, paint a picture of efforts to develop a network of paid informers in black communities that would include operators of taverns, liquor stores and barber shops; janitors, taxi drivers and salesmen; newspaper, food and beverage distributors, and bill collectors.

Every agent, under this directive, would be required to obtain at least one racial informer. "All information should be recorded by memo — with copies for the files on any individuals or organizations mentioned," one document said.

A sort of alliance with veterans organizations in the search for a vast system of racial informers was suggested by a passage that said, "We are exploring other sources which may produce large numbers of prospects such as men honorably discharged from the armed services, members of veterans organizations and the like."

Much of the information that the bureau said the network should uncover would concern incipient riots. Later instructions elaborating on the uses of the system called for specific inquiries into the involvement of black extremists in criminal activities, black militants who attempt to influence the black community, peddlers and purchasers of extremist literature, and efforts by foreign powers to "take over the Negro militant movement."

In passing, agent were also advised that information on gambling activities should be reported "so that this office might receive credit for any 'handle' from such a gambling operation."

Singled out for surveillance were a whole range of buildings in black areas of Philadelphia, including offices of the Congress of Racial Equality, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Black Coalition and a settlement house.

The stolen documents also indicate that in 1968 the bureau involved itself in mailing anonymous literature to college officials in an effort to influence their attitudes toward student activists.

Warning For Agents

An article on the seizure of buildings at Columbia University in 1968, which pictured the act as the first step in a plan to seize the industrial power of America, was recommended to be mailed "anonymously to college educators who have shown a reluctance to take decisive action against the 'New Left.'"

An agent in the office was asked to "handle" Swarthmore, Haverford and Villanova Colleges and to report "positive results or comments by recipients."

Living Cost Rises 7.8%

LONDON (AP)—Britain's cost of living was 7.8 per cent higher in December, 1970, than a year earlier, statistics of the Department of Employment and Productivity showed.

Subsequent to MEDBURG, a neighborhood investigation reflected that this UNSUB female did not call on any other firms in the immediate area of the Resident Agency. This would indicate that the UNSUB female may have been casing the Resident Agency.

It is noted that just such a technique was used in the Rochester Resident Agency break-in by the Flower City Conspiracy group prior to the actual break-in of 9/6/70.

Numerous photographs were displayed to the SAs who observed the unknown female walk in. Included in these were the two enclosures, which were taken at an anti-draft rally held on 6/27/68, at the U.S. Court House in Philadelphia. 4

The Special Agent who talked to the female walk in picked the girl who is circled in ink in the enclosures as bearing a very good likeness to the unidentified woman who appeared at the Media Resident Agency on 2/24/71. The Special Agent was unable to determine merely from viewing the photos whether the girl depicted in the photographs was, in fact, the unknown walk in who appeared at the Media Resident Agency on 2/24/71.

The Bureau has instructed that copies of the photographs should be furnished to East Coast Offices to be shown to agents, sources, and informants.

In exhibiting the pictures to informants and sources, MEDBURG should not be discussed. Under no circumstances should the photo be exhibited to anyone connected with the news media until such time as specific Bureau authority is received.

Our Chicago Office advised on April 15, 1971, they had received information from a reliable source indicating a "Chicago Sun Times" reporter had received erroneous information that [redacted] [redacted] was an FBI informant. The reporter intends to release a story in the near future relating to FBI coverage of student activity at the Bethany and Northern Baptist Theological Seminaries, Oak Brook, Illinois. [redacted] has advised students at the seminary that he is not an FBI informant but reports indicate most students feel that he has assisted the FBI. The reporter is apparently basing his information on the fact that one of the copies of serials stolen in the Media burglary that has been released to various news media had the name of [redacted] U. S. A., Oak Brook, Illinois, on the bottom of the page.

By way of background, the Chicago Office was previously requested to conduct an investigation to identify a [redacted] at Oak Brook, Illinois, as there was no accountable reason for this name to appear on the bottom of the copy of the stolen document. All employees of the Philadelphia Division were surveyed to determine if any employees had knowledge as to how this name appeared on the bottom of this serial with unsuccessful results.

Attempts were made to interview [redacted] on April 8, 1971, when it was determined [redacted] was on Easter vacation. Upon return from vacation [redacted] telephonically contacted the Des Plaines Resident Agency and advised he would submit to an interview if Agents would contact him for an appointment. Arrangements were made to interview [redacted] on April 14, 1971, at the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary and upon arrival in the vicinity of the seminary campus, Bureau Agents noted a huge white sign 10' by 10' with words "Welcome FBI" and a group of 25 to 30 individuals apparently waiting for the Agents. Interview attempt was discontinued.

ACTION: For information. Chicago has been previously instructed to locate and interview [redacted] off campus under secure conditions to determine why his name appeared on the copy of one of the stolen documents.
